BUDDHIST

Atlanta's Buddhist communities date back to the 1970s and the immigration of people from China and other South Asian countries. The temples and worship places still tend to serve specific ethnic populations, such as Wat Buddhaccha (3094 Rainbow Dr., Decatur), which is Thai; Chua Quan Minh Temple (1168 Benteen Ave. SE), which is Vietnamese; and Atlanta Buddhist Association (5383-D New Peachtree Rd., Chamblee), which is Chinese. There are also a number of Buddhist organizations associated with Emory University, including the Drepung Loseling Institute, which teaches Tibetan Buddhism as practiced by the Dalai Lama. For further information on temples and centers in the area, see www.aszc.org.
